Notes

In the market for preserved vegetables, Prodotti Amelia is an established brand. The food business started in Sarno, a town at the base of a narrow plain crossed by the Sarno river in the province of Salerno. The business started back in 1991; in the then artisanal workshop, the production of specialities in oil was given a boost. The founder's entrepreneurial spirit and dedication to his work then characterised his successors who, over the course of a few generations, developed a vast range of specialities that we present on the following pages. Always sensitive to the issues of environmental protection, public health, and health and safety in the workplace, we have
